WELCOME

Riviera Summer

Tomatoes, fish, and a cold soup. A summer written from the market.

This book gathers 19 recipes from Adrian Stefan's kitchen library, grouped the way a meal runs: Apéritif, Starters, Mains, On the side and Desserts. They are reproduced as written in the library, with the serving size, timings, ingredients, method and a note on plating for each dish.

How to use this book

- Read a recipe through once before you shop. Quantities are in grams and millilitres, oven temperatures in °C.
- Each recipe lists its allergens. Check them against your guests.
- The "Variations & swaps" notes show how a dish can change with the season or the table.

APÉRITIF

Anchoïade with Charred Baby Vegetables

Serves 6 · Prep 15 min · Cook 10 min

"Provence's pungent anchovy dip smoothed with confit garlic, served warm with fire-kissed baby vegetables — the Riviera's answer to bagna cauda."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 6)

- Anchovy fillets in oil, drained — 100 g
- Garlic cloves — 25 g
- Extra virgin olive oil — 150 ml
- Red wine vinegar — 10 ml
- Dijon mustard — 8 g
- Baby carrots — 150 g
- Baby fennel, halved — 150 g
- Radishes with tops — 120 g
- Baby courgettes, halved — 150 g
- Black pepper — 1 g

METHOD

1. Confit garlic cloves in 50 ml olive oil at 120 °C for 8 minutes until soft and blond.
2. Blend anchovies, confit garlic and its oil, vinegar and mustard until smooth.
3. Stream in remaining oil with the blender running to a loose, warm emulsion; season with pepper only.
4. Blanch carrots and fennel 2 minutes in salted water; drain and dry.
5. Char all vegetables on a screaming-hot plancha 2–3 minutes, cut sides down, leaving them crisp within.
6. Serve the anchoïade warm (about 45 °C) with the vegetables arranged around it.

PLATING & SERVICE

A warm stoneware pot of anchoïade centre-table, vegetables radiating out by colour; give guests small tongs.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Blend in 30 g black olives for a deeper, tapenade-leaning dip; raw vegetables only for a fully no-cook version.

APÉRITIF

Tapenade Noire with Confit Citrus and Marcona Almonds

Serves 8 · Prep 15 min · Cook 0 min

"Coarse-chopped Nyons olive tapenade brightened with confit lemon — knife-cut, never blitzed to paste, so every element keeps its voice."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 8)

- Black olives (Nyons or Kalamata), pitted — 250 g
- Capers, rinsed — 30 g
- Anchovy fillets (optional, omit for vegan) — 15 g
- Confit lemon peel, brunoise — 15 g
- Garlic, grated — 3 g
- Marcona almonds, chopped — 40 g
- Extra virgin olive oil — 60 ml
- Fresh thyme leaves — 2 g
- Orange zest — 2 g
- Black pepper — 1 g

METHOD

1. Dry the olives well on paper — excess brine dulls the oil.
2. Chop olives, capers and anchovy by hand to a coarse 3–4 mm rubble.
3. Fold in confit lemon, garlic, thyme and orange zest.
4. Stir through olive oil to a spoonable, glistening texture.
5. Fold in almonds last to keep their crunch.
6. Rest 30 minutes at room temperature; check pepper — salt is rarely needed.

PLATING & SERVICE

Serve in a shallow bowl with grilled fougasse, or quenelle onto seared tuna as an instant sauce.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Green olive version with basil and pistachio is summery; keeps 5 days chilled under a film of oil.

Allergens: nuts, fish

APÉRITIF

Pissaladière, Slow Onions, Anchovy & Niçoise Olives

Serves 8 · Prep 30 min · Cook 75 min

"Nice's onion tart on a thin olive-oil dough — the onions cook to jam before they ever see the oven; perfect cut into apéro squares."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 8)

- Strong flour — 300 g
- Water, warm — 180 ml
- Fresh yeast — 8 g (or 3 g dry)
- Olive oil — 60 ml (30 for dough, 30 for onions)
- Fine salt — 6 g
- Yellow onions, thinly sliced — 1.5 kg
- Thyme — 5 sprigs
- Bay leaf — 1
- Anchovy fillets in oil — 20 (about 80 g)
- Niçoise olives — 80 g
- Black pepper — 1 g

METHOD

1. Mix flour, yeast, water, 30 ml oil and salt; knead 8 min to a smooth dough. Prove 1 h until doubled.
2. Meanwhile cook onions with 30 ml oil, thyme, bay and a pinch of salt over low heat, lid on, 20 min; then lid off 30–40 min, stirring, to a pale-gold jam with no liquid. Cool.
3. Press dough into an oiled 30 × 40 cm tray to 5 mm thickness; prove 20 min.
4. Spread onions to the edges; lattice the anchovies in diamonds and dot olives in the gaps.
5. Bake at 220 °C for 18–20 min until the base is crisp and deep golden underneath.
6. Rest 5 min, grind over pepper, slice.

PLATING & SERVICE

Warm or room temperature in squares — ideal with chilled rosé on the aft deck.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Vegan: replace anchovies with strips of slow-roasted red pepper and add 10 g capers to the onions.

Allergens: gluten, fish

STARTERS

Golden Gazpacho with Charentais Melon & Basil Oil

Serves 8 · Prep 25 min · Cook 0 min

"Yellow tomatoes and melon blitzed to cold silk — the deck lunch opener that requires no flame in a heatwave."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 8)

- Yellow tomatoes, ripe — 1 kg
- Charentais or cantaloupe melon — 400 g
- Yellow pepper — 200 g
- Cucumber, peeled — 250 g
- Shallot — 40 g
- Garlic — 5 g
- Sherry vinegar — 25 ml
- Extra virgin olive oil — 100 ml
- Basil — 25 g
- Fine sea salt — 10 g
- White pepper — 1 g
- Iced water — 100 ml

METHOD

1. Blitz basil with 50 ml oil and a pinch of salt; strain through fine mesh for a green oil.
2. Blend tomatoes, melon, pepper, cucumber, shallot, garlic, vinegar and salt on high 2 minutes until completely smooth.
3. Stream in remaining 50 ml oil to emulsify; adjust body with iced water.

Not medical advice. Talk to your doctor before changing your diet or training, especially if you have a medical condition or take medication.

CONTINUED

METHOD, CONTINUED

4. Pass through a chinois for silk; season — cold food needs more salt and acid than you think.
5. Chill to 4 °C, minimum 2 hours.
6. Serve in chilled glasses or bowls with basil oil beads and a crack of white pepper.

PLATING & SERVICE

Chilled coupe glasses on deck before lunch, or bowls with diced melon and cucumber as garnish for the table.

GALLEY NOTES

Holds 3 days and actually improves overnight — blend a triple batch on prep day. Serve in tumblers for the beach cooler: a drinkable course, zero cutlery.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Classic red version: red tomatoes + 80 g bread (not GF). Add a chiffonade of jamón for the omnivores. Spike with 20 ml fino sherry for apéro hour.

Allergens: sulphites

STARTERS

Soupe au Pistou, Summer Beans & Basil

Serves 8 · Prep 25 min · Cook 50 min

"Provence in a bowl — a garden-vegetable soup finished with raw basil pistou stirred in at the table so the perfume hits first."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 8)

- Fresh white coco beans (or cooked cannellini) — 300 g
- Green beans, cut 2 cm — 200 g
- Courgette, 1 cm dice — 250 g
- Carrot, 1 cm dice — 150 g
- Waxy potato, 1 cm dice — 200 g
- Ripe tomatoes, chopped — 300 g
- Small macaroni — 100 g
- Vegetable stock — 2 L
- Basil leaves — 60 g
- Garlic — 15 g
- Olive oil — 100 ml
- Fine salt — 10 g
- Black pepper — 2 g

METHOD

1. Simmer coco beans in the stock 20 min (skip if using cooked beans).
2. Add carrot and potato; simmer 10 min.
3. Add courgette, green beans, tomatoes and pasta; simmer 12 min until pasta is just tender. Season.
4. Pound garlic with a pinch of salt in a mortar; add basil and pound to a paste, then work in olive oil to a loose pistou.
5. Rest soup 5 min off the heat; check seasoning.
6. Serve with a generous spoon of pistou swirled into each bowl at the table.

PLATING & SERVICE

Rustic wide bowls; pass extra pistou and grated cheese separately for those who want it.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

GF: use rice-based pasta. Classic Niçois: stir 30 g grated Parmesan into the pistou (no longer vegan).

Allergens: gluten, celery

STARTERS

Fleurs de Courgette Beignets, Brousse and Lemon Zest

Serves 4 · Prep 30 min · Cook 15 min

"Courgette flowers stuffed with lemony brousse and fried in a crackling tempura-light batter — the Riviera June market on a plate."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 4)

- Courgette flowers — 12 flowers (about 120 g)
- Brousse or fresh ricotta — 200 g
- Lemon zest — 4 g
- Basil, sliced — 6 g
- Parmesan-style cheese, grated — 25 g
- Black pepper — 1 g
- Plain flour — 100 g
- Cornflour — 50 g
- Ice-cold sparkling water — 220 ml
- Fine sea salt — 5 g
- Sunflower oil for frying — 1200 ml
- Honey — 15 g

METHOD

1. Drain brousse 30 minutes in a sieve; mix with lemon zest, basil, cheese, pepper and 2 g salt.
2. Open each flower gently, remove the stamen, pipe in 25 g filling, twist petals closed.
3. Whisk flour, cornflour and 3 g salt with sparkling water briefly — lumps are fine; keep over ice.
4. Heat oil to 180 °C.
5. Dip flowers in batter, letting excess run off; fry 3–4 at a time, 2–3 minutes, turning once, until pale gold and crisp.
6. Drain on a rack, salt immediately, thread with honey and serve within minutes.

PLATING & SERVICE

Serve on crumpled parchment, three per person, honey barely visible — the crunch must stay audible across the deck.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Vegan with silken-tofu-and-herb filling and no cheese; add 2 g saffron to the batter for colour and perfume.

Allergens: gluten, dairy

STARTERS

Tomates Anciennes with Whipped Brousse, Olive Soil and Aged Balsamic

Serves 4 · Prep 20 min · Cook 30 min

"Heirloom tomatoes at room temperature over whipped brousse, with a crunchy black-olive 'soil' — a study in how little perfect tomatoes need."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 4)

- Heirloom tomatoes, mixed colours — 700 g
- Brousse or fresh ricotta — 200 g
- Double cream — 40 ml
- Lemon zest — 2 g
- Black olives, pitted — 100 g
- Extra virgin olive oil — 60 ml
- Aged balsamic vinegar — 15 ml
- Basil, small leaves — 6 g
- Flaky sea salt — 4 g
- Black pepper — 1 g

METHOD

1. Dry the olives on paper, then dehydrate at 120 °C for 30 minutes until leathery; cool and chop to a coarse 'soil'.
2. Whip brousse with cream and lemon zest until light; season lightly.
3. Slice tomatoes in varied cuts — thick rounds, wedges, halves — and season with flaky salt 10 minutes ahead.
4. Swipe whipped brousse across each plate.
5. Arrange tomatoes with height and colour contrast; spoon over their salted juices.
6. Scatter olive soil, drizzle oil and balsamic, finish with basil and pepper.

PLATING & SERVICE

Room-temperature tomatoes only — never fridge-cold; serve as a stand-alone course with grilled bread.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Vegan with whipped almond ricotta; a few drops of orange blossom water in the tomato juices is a quiet Provençal trick.

Allergens: dairy

MAINS

Salade Nicoise with Seared Rare Tuna and Anchovy Vinaigrette

Serves 4 · Prep 30 min · Cook 15 min

"The Niçoise reimagined with seared rare tuna loin — every element seasoned separately, the anchovy vinaigrette pulling it into one dish."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 4)

- Tuna loin, sashimi-grade — 400 g
- Eggs — 220 g (4 eggs)
- Green beans — 200 g
- Baby gem lettuce — 200 g
- Cherry tomatoes — 250 g
- Niçois olives — 60 g
- Radishes — 80 g
- Spring onions — 40 g
- Anchovy fillets — 20 g
- Dijon mustard — 8 g
- Red wine vinegar — 20 ml
- Extra virgin olive oil — 90 ml
- Basil leaves — 6 g
- Fine sea salt — 5 g

METHOD

1. Boil eggs 7 minutes for a fudgy yolk; cool in iced water, peel, halve.
2. Blanch beans 3 minutes in heavily salted water; refresh and dry.
3. Mash anchovies with mustard and vinegar; whisk in 80 ml oil for a punchy vinaigrette.
4. Season tuna, rub with remaining oil; sear on a smoking plancha 45 seconds per side — the core stays rare (about 38 °C).
5. Rest tuna 5 minutes, then slice 1 cm thick against the grain.
6. Dress each element separately in a little vinaigrette: leaves, beans, halved tomatoes, radishes.
7. Compose on a platter, tuna over, eggs, olives and spring onion last; final drizzle and basil.

PLATING & SERVICE

Build on one grand platter for the table — height in the centre, tuna slices fanned rare-side up.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Classic version uses confit tuna belly from a jar; omit egg and use capers instead of anchovy in the dressing for a lighter plate.

MAINS

Loup de Mer en Croûte de Sel, Fenouil

Serves 4 · Prep 25 min · Cook 30 min

"Whole sea bass baked in an aromatic salt shell and cracked open at the table — maximum theatre, near-zero fat, impossible to overcook if timed."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 4)

- Whole sea bass, gutted through the gills, scales ON — 1 (1.6–1.8 kg)
- Coarse sea salt — 2 kg
- Egg whites — 4 (120 g)
- Fennel fronds and slices — 60 g
- Lemon, sliced — 1
- Thyme — 6 sprigs
- Fennel seeds, crushed — 4 g
- Extra virgin olive oil — 60 ml
- Lemon juice — 20 ml
- Espelette pepper — 0.5 g

METHOD

1. Oven to 220 °C. Stuff the cavity with fennel, lemon slices and thyme.
2. Mix salt with egg whites and fennel seeds until it holds like wet sand.
3. Bed 1 cm of salt on a tray, lay the fish on, and pack the rest over, sealing completely (leave the tail exposed as a doneness window).
4. Bake 25–28 min for a 1.7 kg fish — rule of thumb 15 min per kg plus 2 min; probe through the crust: core 54 °C.
5. Rest 8 min in the crust.
6. Crack the crust at the table, brush away salt, peel back skin and lift the fillets off the bone.
7. Dress with olive oil, lemon juice and Espelette.

PLATING & SERVICE

Fillet tableside onto warm plates; serve with braised fennel and a sharp green salad.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Works with daurade royale or a 2 kg snapper (adjust time). Add pastis-butter sauce for richness if diet allows.

Allergens: fish, eggs

Recipe by Adrian Stefan, Table d'Adrian

Not medical advice. Talk to your doctor before changing your diet or training, especially if you have a medical condition or take medication.

MAINS

Loup en Papillote with Fennel, Tomato Confit and Vermouth

Serves 4 · Prep 20 min · Cook 18 min

"Sea bass steamed in its own parchment tent with vermouth and fennel — zero-mess galley cooking that opens in a cloud of anise."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 4)

- Sea bass fillets, skin on — 640 g (4)
- Fennel bulb, shaved — 200 g
- Cherry tomato confit — 160 g
- Leek, fine julienne — 100 g
- Celery, fine julienne — 50 g
- Dry vermouth — 60 ml
- Extra virgin olive oil — 50 ml
- Lemon — 120 g
- Tarragon — 4 g
- Fine sea salt — 6 g
- Black pepper — 1 g

METHOD

1. Heat oven to 200 °C. Cut four 40 cm parchment hearts.
2. Toss fennel, leek and celery with 20 ml oil and salt; divide over one half of each heart.
3. Season fillets; lay skin-up on the vegetables with tomato confit, a lemon slice and tarragon.
4. Spoon 15 ml vermouth and 7 ml oil over each; fold and crimp the edges into a tight seal.
5. Bake on a preheated tray 14–16 minutes — the parcels should balloon; fish reaches 54 °C.
6. Serve the parcels sealed; open at the table with scissors for the steam moment.

PLATING & SERVICE

One puffed parcel per guest, scissors offered; the first cut releases anise, sea and vermouth.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Any flaky white fish works; swap vermouth for 20 ml orange juice for alcohol-free.

Allergens: fish, celery, sulphites

MAINS

Daurade Royale Provençale, Tomates Confites

Serves 4 · Prep 20 min · Cook 35 min

"Whole gilt-head bream roasted over confit tomatoes, olives and herbs — a one-tray Provençal main that forgives a rolling sea."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 4)

- Whole daurade royale, scaled and gutted — 2 (about 700 g each)
- Cherry tomatoes — 500 g
- Black olives, pitted — 80 g
- Garlic cloves, skin on, crushed — 6 (25 g)
- Fennel, thin wedges — 250 g
- Lemon — 1, sliced
- Extra virgin olive oil — 90 ml
- Dry white wine — 100 ml
- Herbes de Provence — 3 g
- Thyme — 6 sprigs
- Basil leaves — 12 g
- Fine salt — 9 g
- Black pepper — 1.5 g

METHOD

1. Oven to 200 °C. Toss tomatoes, fennel, garlic and olives with 60 ml oil, herbes de Provence and 4 g salt in a roasting tray; roast 15 min.
2. Score each bream three times per side; season inside and out; stuff cavities with thyme and lemon.
3. Nest the fish on the vegetables; drizzle with remaining oil, pour wine around.
4. Roast 20–24 min to a core of 55 °C behind the head; the eyes will have turned opaque.
5. Rest 5 min on the tray.
6. Tear basil over and spoon the tray juices back over the fish.

PLATING & SERVICE

Serve from the tray, lifting fillets tableside; the juices are the sauce — bread to mop.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Swap bream for sea bass or red snapper. Add 300 g sliced potatoes under the vegetables (roast 15 min extra) for a fuller meal.

Allergens: fish, sulphites

MAINS

Rougets à la Tapenade, Courgettes Fines

Serves 4 · Prep 25 min · Cook 10 min

"Crisp-skinned red mullet on ribboned courgettes with a black olive tapenade — small fish, huge Mediterranean voice."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 4)

- Red mullet fillets, pin-boned, skin on — 8 (about 480 g)
- Black olives, pitted (Niçoise or Kalamata) — 100 g
- Anchovy fillets — 3 (12 g)
- Capers — 15 g
- Garlic — 4 g
- Extra virgin olive oil — 90 ml
- Lemon juice — 20 ml
- Courgettes — 3 (450 g)
- Basil — 10 g
- Espelette pepper — 0.5 g
- Fine salt — 5 g

METHOD

1. Tapenade: pulse olives, anchovies, capers, garlic and 40 ml oil to a coarse paste; add 10 ml lemon. No salt needed.
2. Ribbon courgettes lengthwise on a mandoline (2 mm); salt lightly, rest 10 min, pat dry.
3. Warm courgette ribbons in a pan with 20 ml oil for 90 sec — just supple; season, add basil.
4. Dry the mullet skin thoroughly; season flesh side.
5. Sear skin-side down in remaining oil over high heat, pressing 10 sec so they stay flat; cook 2–3 min until skin is crisp and the flesh is opaque two-thirds up.
6. Flip for 20 sec only; finish with remaining lemon.
7. Plate courgettes, fish skin-up, tapenade in three neat dots per plate.

PLATING & SERVICE

Two fillets per plate, skin blistered and facing up, Espelette dusted over.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Vegan option for the table: same courgettes and tapenade over grilled aubergine steaks. Sea bream fillets substitute cleanly.

Allergens: fish, sulphites

MAINS

Pan Bagnat, the Pressed Nicoise Sandwich

Serves 4 · Prep 25 min · Cook 0 min

"Nice's 'bathed bread' — a Niçoise salad pressed inside a crusty roll overnight so the juices soak the crumb; built for tender lunches."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 4)

- Round crusty rolls or small boules — 480 g (4)
- Tuna confit in olive oil, drained — 250 g
- Eggs, boiled 8 minutes — 220 g (4)
- Ripe tomatoes, sliced — 300 g
- Radishes, sliced — 60 g
- Green pepper, fine rings — 60 g
- Spring onions — 40 g
- Niçois olives, pitted — 50 g
- Anchovy fillets — 25 g
- Basil leaves — 8 g
- Red wine vinegar — 15 ml
- Extra virgin olive oil — 70 ml
- Black pepper — 1 g

METHOD

1. Split rolls and pull out a third of the crumb to make room.
2. Whisk vinegar with olive oil; brush both cut faces generously — the bread must be truly 'bathed'.
3. Layer bottom halves: tomato (salted), tuna, sliced egg, pepper rings, radish, spring onion, olives, anchovy, basil.
4. Season with pepper, drizzle remaining vinaigrette, cap with tops.
5. Wrap each tightly in parchment and film; press under a board with a 2 kg weight, 2 hours minimum, overnight chilled is ideal.
6. Serve at cool room temperature, halved to show the strata.

PLATING & SERVICE

Cut in half at the table so the compressed layers show; perfect for tenders, beach drops and lazy anchorages.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Vegetarian with grilled artichokes and white beans replacing tuna and anchovy; day-old bread actually works better.

ON THE SIDE

Ratatouille Confit Byaldi, Piment Doux

Serves 6 · Prep 40 min · Cook 100 min

"The shingled, oven-confited ratatouille — vegetables sliced thin, laid over a smoky piperade base and baked low so each ring candies in olive oil."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 6)

- Courgettes (mixed green/yellow), 2 mm rounds — 500 g
- Aubergine, slim, 2 mm rounds — 400 g
- Roma tomatoes, 2 mm rounds — 500 g
- Base: red peppers, roasted, peeled — 300 g
- Onion, fine dice — 200 g
- Garlic, minced — 15 g
- Ripe tomatoes, chopped — 300 g
- Extra virgin olive oil — 120 ml
- Thyme — 6 sprigs
- Basil — 15 g
- Sherry vinegar — 15 ml
- Espelette pepper — 1.5 g
- Fine salt — 12 g

METHOD

1. Base: sweat onion and garlic in 40 ml oil, 6 min; add chopped tomatoes and roasted peppers; simmer 20 min; blend smooth with vinegar and 5 g salt.
2. Spread the base 1 cm deep in a wide gratin or paella dish.
3. Shingle alternating rounds of courgette, aubergine and tomato in tight concentric spirals over the base.
4. Brush generously with 60 ml oil; season with remaining salt, thyme leaves and Espelette.
5. Cover with parchment cut to fit; bake at 150 °C for 75 min.
6. Uncover; raise to 190 °C for 15–20 min until the edges caramelise.
7. Rest 10 min; dress with torn basil and the last of the oil.

PLATING & SERVICE

Serve wedges with the pepper base spooned around — a main with chickpea panisse, or a side to roast lamb.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Classic chunky ratatouille: sauté each vegetable separately, combine 20 min. Add goat cheese medallions (no longer vegan) for a richer plate.

Allergens: none

ON THE SIDE

Tomates Farcies Grand-Mère

Serves 4 · Prep 30 min · Cook 60 min

"Big summer tomatoes stuffed with sausage and herbs, roasted on rice that drinks their juices — grandmother's food that outshines its fancy rivals."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 4)

- Large ripe tomatoes — 8 (about 1.4 kg)
- Sausage meat (plain, good pork) — 500 g
- Beef mince — 150 g
- Onion, fine dice — 120 g
- Garlic, minced — 10 g
- Egg — 1 (55 g)
- Fresh breadcrumbs — 40 g
- Flat-leaf parsley — 15 g; basil 10 g; thyme leaves 3 g
- Olive oil — 50 ml
- Long-grain rice — 200 g
- Chicken stock — 250 ml
- Fine salt — 10 g; black pepper 2 g; sugar 4 g

METHOD

1. Slice a lid off each tomato; scoop the flesh into a bowl (keep it); salt the cavities, invert 20 min to drain.
2. Sweat onion and garlic in 20 ml oil, 4 min; cool.
3. Mix sausage, beef, onion, egg, breadcrumbs, chopped herbs, 5 g salt and pepper.
4. Spread rice in an oiled gratin dish; chop the tomato flesh and stir it through with the stock, sugar and 3 g salt.
5. Fill tomatoes generously with farce, mounding slightly; replace lids; sit them on the rice.
6. Drizzle with remaining oil; bake at 180 °C for 55–60 min until the farce reads 72 °C and the rice is tender, basting once.
7. Rest 10 min — the rice finishes swelling in the juices.

PLATING & SERVICE

Two tomatoes per plate on their tomato-stained rice, roasting juices spooned over.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

GF: skip breadcrumbs, add 30 g cooked rice to the farce. Also stuff courgettes, peppers and onions from the same batch (petits farcis).

Allergens: eggs, gluten, celery

ON THE SIDE

Tian Provençal, Panisse Croustillante

Serves 4 · Prep 30 min · Cook 90 min

"Layered Provençal vegetable tian with crisp chickpea panisse batons — a vegan main with real architecture and Niçois street-food soul."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 4)

- Chickpea flour — 250 g
- Water — 750 ml
- Olive oil — 100 ml (30 for panisse, 70 for tian and frying)
- Fine salt — 12 g
- Courgettes, 3 mm rounds — 400 g
- Aubergine, 3 mm rounds — 300 g
- Tomatoes, 3 mm rounds — 400 g
- Red onion, thin rounds — 150 g
- Garlic, minced — 10 g
- Herbes de Provence — 3 g
- Thyme — 4 sprigs
- Lemon juice — 15 ml
- Rocket — 60 g

METHOD

1. Panisse: whisk chickpea flour into cold water with 6 g salt and 30 ml oil; cook, whisking hard, 8–10 min until very thick like polenta.
2. Pour into an oiled 20 cm square tin (2 cm deep); chill 2 h until firm.
3. Tian: rub a dish with garlic and oil; shingle courgette, aubergine, tomato and onion upright in tight rows; season, scatter herbs, drizzle 40 ml oil.
4. Bake at 170 °C for 70–80 min until collapsed and caramelised at the edges.
5. Cut panisse into 2 × 8 cm batons; shallow-fry in hot oil (180 °C) 3–4 min until golden and crisp; drain, salt.
6. Rest tian 10 min; finish with lemon juice.

PLATING & SERVICE

A generous scoop of tian, panisse stacked log-cabin style, rocket dressed in the tian juices.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Panisse loves rosemary salt or grated pecorino (no longer vegan). The tian improves reheated next day.

Allergens: none

DESSERTS

Tarte au Citron de Menton

Serves 8 · Prep 45 min · Cook 45 min

"Riviera lemons in a whole-butter cremeux inside almond sablé — sharp enough to make you blink, glossy enough for the pass."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 8)

- Sablé: flour 210 g, icing sugar 80 g, ground almonds 30 g, cold butter 120 g, egg 1 (55 g), salt 2 g
- Lemon cream: lemon juice — 180 ml (Menton if you can)
- Lemon zest — 8 g
- Eggs — 4 (220 g)
- Caster sugar — 160 g
- Unsalted butter, diced — 220 g
- Gold gelatine leaf (optional stability) — 1 (2 g)

METHOD

1. Sablé: rub flour, icing sugar, almonds, salt and butter to sand; bind with egg; rest 2 h chilled.
2. Roll 3 mm; line a 24 cm ring; freeze 30 min. Blind-bake at 160 °C with beans 20 min; remove beans, bake 10–12 min to even gold; brush with a little egg to seal, 2 min more.
3. Cream: whisk eggs, sugar, zest and juice in a bain-marie, stirring to 83 °C — thick nappe.
4. Strain; add bloomed gelatine if using; cool to 45 °C.
5. Blend in the butter with a stick blender, 2 min, until pale, glossy and mousse-tight.
6. Pour into the case; refrigerate 3 h to set.
7. Finish with fine zest, or torch a thin caster-sugar dusting for a brûléed lid.

PLATING & SERVICE

Clean hot-knife wedges; a rocher of crème fraîche and three micro-basil leaves if garnish is demanded.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Meringue version: Italian meringue piped and torched. Yuzu-lemon 50/50 for a modern register. GF: swap flour for 170 g rice flour + 40 g almonds.

Allergens: gluten, dairy, eggs, nuts

DESSERTS

Lavender and Honey Panna Cotta with Apricot Compote

Serves 6 · Prep 20 min · Cook 10 min

"A barely-set panna cotta — 1.6 g gelatine per 100 ml — infused with lavender restraint, over a sharp apricot compote; wobble is everything."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 6)

- Double cream — 500 ml
- Whole milk — 150 ml
- Lavender honey — 70 g
- Culinary lavender flowers — 1.5 g
- Vanilla pod, split — 1 g
- Gold gelatine leaves — 10 g
- Apricots, stoned, quartered — 400 g
- Caster sugar — 50 g
- Lemon juice — 15 ml
- Pistachios, chopped — 20 g

METHOD

1. Soak gelatine in iced water 5 minutes.
2. Heat cream, milk, honey, lavender and vanilla to 80 °C; cover and infuse exactly 8 minutes — longer turns soapy.
3. Strain; whisk in the squeezed gelatine until dissolved.
4. Cool the base over ice to 30 °C (this stops the vanilla sinking); pour into 6 glasses or moulds.
5. Set 4 hours minimum in the fridge.
6. Simmer apricots, sugar and lemon 8–10 minutes to a chunky compote; chill.
7. Serve panna cotta with compote and pistachios; unmould by dipping moulds 3 seconds in hot water.

PLATING & SERVICE

In glass, layered, for boat service (no unmoulding at anchor); the wobble should answer the sea's.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Vegan with coconut cream and 2 g agar (boiled 2 minutes); swap apricot for roasted fig in September.

Allergens: dairy

DESSERTS

Lemon Posset with Basil Shortbread & Riviera Berries

Serves 8 · Prep 20 min · Cook 25 min

"Three-ingredient magic that sets itself in the fridge — the charter dessert with the highest elegance-to-effort ratio known to galley science."

FROM THE RECIPE NOTES

INGREDIENTS (SERVES 8)

- Double cream — 900 ml
- Caster sugar — 220 g
- Lemons — 4 (juice 120 ml, zest 8 g)
- Plain flour — 170 g
- Unsalted butter, soft — 110 g
- Icing sugar — 55 g
- Basil leaves, minced — 6 g
- Fine sea salt — 2 g
- Mixed berries — 250 g
- Basil tips — 8

METHOD

1. Simmer cream, caster sugar and zest for exactly 3 minutes, stirring — it must reduce slightly.
2. Off heat, whisk in lemon juice; the acid sets it.
3. Strain into 8 glasses; chill 4+ hours until softly set.
4. Shortbread: beat butter, icing sugar, salt; fold in flour and minced basil; press 1 cm thick, chill 20 minutes.
5. Cut into batons; bake at 160 °C fan for 20–25 minutes to pale gold; sugar-dust warm.
6. Serve possets with berries on top and shortbread alongside.

PLATING & SERVICE

Glass verrines, three berries and a basil tip each, shortbread crossed over the rim.

GALLEY NOTES

Possets hold 3 days chilled and travel in their glasses — the make-ahead that never fails at anchor or dockside. Shortbread keeps a week in a tin.

VARIATIONS & SWAPS

Lime + ginger posset variant. GF: almond-flour shortbread or none. Lighter finish impossible — this is cream; portion small, garnish sharp.

Allergens: dairy, gluten
